3 Disbursement and settlement of the Grant

- 3.16 GIZ has the right to verify compliance with the Agreement itself and/or by commissioning external auditors at its own expense. The audit shall in particular cover compliance with the principles of proper accounting, the proper use of the Grant and the proper award of contracts for supplies and services in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

The anticipated audit periods are as follows:

1. Audit period: 15.12.2023 up to 31.07.2025

Prior to finalisation of the audit report, the Recipient shall receive information on the main findings and have the opportunity to comment on these findings. After the audit report has been finalised, GIZ shall inform the Recipient about the significant results of the audit report and their implementation. The Recipient shall implement the recommendations made by GIZ and the auditor based on the results of the audit report, taking into account the order of priority for implementation as specified therein and shall provide evidence for this at the request of GIZ.

All other provisions of the original Agreement - including previous supplements to the Agreement (if applicable) - shall remain valid without modification.

Yours sincerely,

Agreed:
